GOSPEL REFLECTION

September 20, 2026

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 20:1-16

Every December, the priests of my diocese gather for a Christmas dinner with our bishop. Nearly 200 of us in one room: newly ordained and long retired, pastors of large parishes and quiet confessors, men full of energy and others moving more slowly. Some carry visible success; others bear hidden wounds. It is a tapestry of vocations and lives. When the bishop thanks us, I am always moved. For a moment, none of our differences matter. What matters is that we belong to one another..

I usually leave that evening with a deep sense of peace, but also with a sober realization. Nothing drains joy from the vineyard of the Lord faster than comparison. The quiet habit of measuring, ranking, and resenting can creep in even among those who sincerely serve God.

That is what Jesus exposes in today's parable of the workers in the vineyard. The early laborers are not upset because they were treated unjustly; they are angry because others were treated generously. Their resentment blinds them to the gift already in their hands. When the landowner asks, "Are you envious because I am generous?" he names the real wound.

This tension echoes throughout salvation history: the elder brother resenting the prodigal, the faithful servant scorning the latecomer. Jesus does not deny the labor of those who have borne the heat of the day, but he refuses to let God's mercy become a zero-sum game.

In the end, the vineyard's reward is not about fairness but belonging. The joy offered is communion with a generous Father, who delights in gathering early and late, strong and weak, into one household of grace.

— Father John Muir

All are invited to the Monastery of the Poor Clares, 3501 Rocky River Drive, on Saturday, October 3, for a special evening commemorating the Transitus of St. Francis of Assisi, his passage from earthly life into eternal life. The evening will begin at 6:00 p.m. with veneration of the sacred relics of St. Francis and St. Clare. The Transitus will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by Benediction. ST. JAMES GUIDED TOURS

We are delighted to offer guided tours of the church after the 10:30 Mass on the last Sundays of the month. Dr. John Alfes will meet with interested parishioners and guests by the altar. Our church presents one of the finest examples of ecclesiastical art in the nation. From the moment you enter, you are immersed in a devotional atmosphere shaped by its architecture, spiritual symbolism, and masterful craftsmanship. Learn and marvel at the rare Portasanta marble pillars, the portraits in stained glass, the biblical stories in murals, and more. Every detail speaks of faith, reverence, and divine majesty. At the heart of it all, Christ, enthroned above the main altar, invites us to worship. The goal is to enhance your worship and spiritual life at St. James.

Socks + Drive: It's About Dignity

On October 3 we will begin our annual Socks+ Drive to help the homeless. In preparation, we offer this simple prayer for the poor and ask you to pray for them, especially throughout the drive.

Remind us that what we do
to the least ones,
we do to you.
Amen.*
