GOSPEL REFLECTION

October 18, 2026
Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 22:15-21

Occasionally, I'll slip into a parish I've never visited before, pick up the bulletin, and find one of my Gospel reflections. My heart usually swells with a bit of affection for my creation. I imprint a bit of myself into my little "literary labors of love." Anyone who has created something — a piece of writing, a garden, a meal, a child — knows that feeling. We love the things into which we put ourselves. We are happy when they return to us.

With this in mind, listen to Jesus' classic line in this Sunday's Gospel: "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:21). He presents this little riddle to deepen the theme from taxes to human beings. A Roman coin bears Caesar's image, so it belongs to Caesar. Therefore, he has a legitimate claim to it. Fair enough. But what belongs to God? What bears His image? Every human being. God has imprinted Himself on every person. Which means everyone — including Caesar — belongs entirely to Him. Jesus, who is God's perfect image, has come to draw everyone back to God.

We can be tempted to imagine that our lives are made up of "things for God" and "things not for God." The good news is that no such division is possible because everything in life is a gift from God to us. Therefore, all is meant to be placed at the service of God's kingdom. He loves everything He has created. We have the privilege of giving it all back to Him.

— Father John Muir

St. Luke the Evangelist: Physician, Evangelist, and Witness to Mercy - Feast Day October 18th

St. Luke, beloved physician and companion of St. Paul, devoted his life to proclaiming the healing mercy of Jesus Christ. Traditionally regarded as the author of the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles, Luke offers us a remarkable vision of salvation: God enters human history not to condemn the world, but to redeem it through His Son.

Throughout his Gospel, Luke reveals Christ's particular tenderness toward the poor, the suffering, the forgotten, and the sinner. It is Luke who preserves for us the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son, the joyful Magnificat of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the promise of paradise made to the repentant thief. In each, we encounter a God whose mercy exceeds human expectations.

In the Acts of the Apostles, Luke continues this story, showing how the Holy Spirit transforms fearful disciples into courageous witnesses. The Church, born from Christ's sacrifice and enlivened by His Spirit, becomes the instrument through which God's saving love reaches the ends of the earth.

Tradition holds that Luke faithfully preached the Gospel until his death. His legacy is not merely that of a historian, but of a disciple who understood that the story of Christ must become the story of every Christian life.

As we celebrate our patron, St. Luke, let us imitate his faithful witness. May we become physicians of wounded hearts, messengers of divine mercy, and courageous proclaimers of the Gospel. Let our parish be a place where the lost are welcomed, the suffering are comforted, and Christ is made known. Like St. Luke, may we proclaim not simply with words, but with lives transformed by the love of God.

Transformed by Accompaniment: Young Adult Happy Hour

Young adults are invited to Transformed by Accompaniment, a free evening of fellowship, connection, and service on Tuesday, October 20, from 7:00–8:30 PM at Forest City Brewery in Cleveland. Participating organizations include Zelie's Home, Hannah's Home, Refuge Host Homes, Sister's Haven, WomanKind, Catholic Charities, Safe Families for Children, Walking With Moms in Need/The Gabriel Project, Diocesan Prison Ministries, and others. Additional organizations may be added as the event approaches. The event is free to attend, and RSVPs are appreciated. Visit dioceseofcleveland.org/events to register.

Recognize, Respond, Restore: Combating Human Trafficking

The Diocese of Cleveland Office for Human Life invites Catholics to Recognize, Respond, Restore: Our Role as Christians in Combating Human Trafficking on Friday, October 23, from 11:30 AM–2:00 PM at the Center for Pastoral Leadership in Wickliffe. This Human Trafficking Awareness Luncheon will explore the realities of human trafficking and the ways Christians can help protect the vulnerable and uphold the dignity of every human person. A panel of experts from anti-trafficking ministries, service organizations, and public agencies will discuss trafficking and other often-overlooked forms of exploitation within our communities. Through moderated discussion, audience Q&A, table conversations, and networking, participants will learn how to recognize signs of trafficking and consider practical responses through awareness, prevention, outreach, and advocacy. The event is open anyone interested in learning more about this important issue. Registration is $15 per person and includes lunch. To register visit: www.dioceseofcleveland.org/events

GUIDED TOURS | LAST SUNDAYS OF THE MONTH

We are delighted to offer guided tours of the church after the 10:30 Mass on the last Sundays of the month. John Alfes will meet with interested parishioners and guests by the altar. Our church presents one of the finest examples of ecclesiastical art in the nation. From the moment you enter, you are immersed in a devotional atmosphere shaped by its architecture, spiritual symbolism, and masterful craftsmanship. Learn and marvel at the rare Portasanta marble pillars, the portraits in stained glass, the biblical stories in murals, and more. Every detail speaks of faith, reverence, and divine majesty. At the heart of it all Christ, enthroned above the main altar, invites us to worship. The goal of these tours is to enhance your worship and spiritual life at St. James.

Graveside Service for Deceased Priests

The Rock Catholic Radio (AM 1260, AM 930, and FM 100.3), in conjunction with the Catholic Cemeteries Association, invites the faithful to a special Graveside Service for Deceased Priests on Monday, November 16 at 3:00 PM at Holy Cross Cemetery in Brook Park.

Please join in prayer as we remember the priests who have died during the past year, as well as all deceased priests who faithfully served the Diocese of Cleveland.

The service will be held indoors at the St. John Paul II Mausoleum in Section 5, followed by a visitation of priests' graves in Section 2.
For additional information, contact The Rock Catholic Radio at 216-227-1260.

A Vocation Story from Our Lakewood Seminarian

We are grateful to welcome Andrew Bendahan, our Lakewood seminarian, the weekend of October 24–25 as he visits the Lakewood Catholic Parishes to share his vocation story. Andrew will speak about his journey of discernment, his call to the priesthood, and the ways God has been at work in his life.

We offer a special invitation to men of our parishes—especially young men and those who may be wondering what God is asking of them—to seriously consider whether the Lord may be calling them to the priesthood. A vocation often begins with a simple question, a quiet stirring, or a willingness to listen more closely in prayer.

If you have ever considered the priesthood, even briefly, we encourage you to take this opportunity to speak with Andrew during his visit and hear firsthand what discernment and seminary life are like. You are also welcome to contact Fr. Cam at frcam@stlukelakewood.org or Fr. Scott at frscott@stlukelakewood.org to begin a conversation.

Sometimes the first step in discerning a vocation is simply having the courage to ask: Lord, what are You calling me to?
