GOSPEL REFLECTION

October 25, 2026
Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 22:34-40

When I was in seventh grade, like most boys of that age, I was constantly hungry. I could eat at any hour of the day. Then I fell head over heels for a classmate named Kristin. One evening, while lying on my bed and pondering her perfections, my mom called me to dinner. For the first time in my adolescent life, I remember thinking: "I'm not hungry." My heart longed for Kristin more than my stomach for food. Now, I wouldn't confuse adolescent infatuation with mature love. But it was an experience of how love can reorder everything in our lives.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart" (Matthew 22:37). He is not issuing a burden or a moral goal for high achievers. He is naming the deepest orientation of the human heart. We were made for love so great that it gathers every other love into itself. Jesus does not ask us to love less the persons or things that attract us. Rather, he wants our love for God to be so total and intense that we love everything and everyone else because we love him so much.

Do we believe that such a love is possible for us? Because of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, it is! It is readily available to us. Let's repent of our half-hearted love for God and ask Him to fill our hearts to the brim with divine love.

— Father John Muir

GUIDED TOURS | LAST SUNDAYS OF THE MONTH

We are delighted to offer guided tours of the church after the 10:30 Mass on the last Sundays of the month. John Alfes will meet with interested parishioners and guests by the altar. Our church presents one of the finest examples of ecclesiastical art in the nation. From the moment you enter, you are immersed in a devotional atmosphere shaped by its architecture, spiritual symbolism, and masterful craftsmanship. Learn and marvel at the rare Portasanta marble pillars, the portraits in stained glass, the biblical stories in murals, and more. Every detail speaks of faith, reverence, and divine majesty. At the heart of it all Christ, enthroned above the main altar, invites us to worship. The goal of these tours is to enhance your worship and spiritual life at St. James.

A Vocation Story from Our Lakewood Seminarian

We are grateful to welcome Andrew Bendahan, our Lakewood seminarian, this weekend as he visits the Lakewood Catholic Parishes to share his vocation story. Andrew will speak about his journey of discernment, his call to the priesthood, and the ways God has been at work in his life.

We offer a special invitation to men of our parishes—especially young men and those who may be wondering what God is asking of them—to seriously consider whether the Lord may be calling them to the priesthood. A vocation often begins with a simple question, a quiet stirring, or a willingness to listen more closely in prayer.

If you have ever considered the priesthood, even briefly, we encourage you to take this opportunity to speak with Andrew during his visit and hear firsthand what discernment and seminary life are like. You are also welcome to contact Fr. Cam at frcam@stlukelakewood.org or Fr. Scott at frscott@stlukelakewood.org to begin a conversation.

Sometimes the first step in discerning a vocation is simply having the courage to ask: Lord, what are You calling me to?

Good Medicine, Hard Times: Join us for a compelling presentation by Colonel Edward P Horvath, MD, a US Army Reserve physician who completed 3 deployments to Iraq. Colonel Horvath will share powerful stories of caring for wounded soldiers, civilians & enemy combatants alike. Through his experiences, he explores the moral challenges of practicing medicine in war & the meaning of compassionate care when lives – including his own – are at risk. Join us for a theologically enriching evening. Cost is $15.00 per person. Light appetizers included. Cash Bar is available. Advance tickets recommended.
Register in advance: www.theologyontherockswest.com. Doors open at 6:30pm.

ChurchGPT: Christian Faith in the Age of AI

How should Catholics approach the rapidly changing world of artificial intelligence? The Mary, Mother of the Good Shepherd Institute invites you to ChurchGPT: Christian Faith in the Age of AI, its fourth annual Faith and Science Workshop, on Saturday, November 14, from 11:00 AM–3:30 PM at St. Sebastian Parish in Akron.

This engaging workshop will explore artificial intelligence from both Catholic theological and scientific perspectives, examining its opportunities, challenges, and implications for faith and society. Featured speakers include Dr. Jordan Wales, Professor of Theology at Hillsdale College, and Dr. Fernanda Psihas, Professor of Computer Science and Physics at Franciscan University of Steubenville.

The day will include presentations, opportunities for discussion, and a boxed lunch. Participants are also invited to attend the 4:30 PM Vigil Mass at St. Sebastian.

Registration is $20 per person, including lunch, and is required by November 7. All are welcome to attend this timely conversation about faith, science, and the future of technology. To register visit www.mmgsi.org/events.
